

A large grid of 150 different Pokémon characters, including various species like Pikachu, Eevee, and many others, arranged in a dense, colorful pattern. The characters are drawn in a classic, cartoonish style with bold outlines and a variety of colors. They are arranged in a grid that is approximately 10 rows by 15 columns, with some characters appearing in multiple forms or evolutions. The background is a solid light blue color. The characters include a wide variety of types, such as Normal, Fire, Water, Electric, Grass, Ice, Fighting, Poison, Ground, Flying, Psychic, Bug, Rock, and Steel. Some characters are shown in their base forms, while others are shown in their evolved states. The overall composition is a comprehensive collection of Pokémon from the first two generations.
